

For Immediate Release

Martin Quinn Elected President of the Academy of Court-Appointed Masters

SAN FRANCISCO, March, 2009 —The Academy of Court-Appointed Masters (ACAM) announces the election of its fifth president—Martin Quinn, Esq. of San Francisco.

Quinn will serve as ACAM President for one year. The highly regarded attorney succeeds David Herr, Sol Schreiber, Francis McGovern, and Roger Haydock. Quinn will lead the only organization composed of experienced masters and judicial adjuncts. In January 2010, Hon. Richard A. Levie (Ret.), who was elected Vice President and President-Elect, will head ACAM.

Martin Quinn is a specialist in e-discovery issues. Recently he served as a discovery special master in a multi-district litigation in Los Angeles of 100 patent cases involving interactive telephone technology. As a neutral with JAMS, the nation's largest private provider of ADR services, he specializes in resolving business and complex tort disputes, and is highly regarded by counsel for his ability to understand both the complex legal issues and the human emotion involved in each case. Mr. Quinn teaches mediation as an adjunct professor at the Hastings College of Law, and serves as Director of The Mediation Society in San Francisco. He earned his law degree from Harvard Law School in 1967, and received his bachelor's degree from Harvard College in 1964.

About the Academy of Court-Appointed Masters

The Academy of Court-Appointed Masters (ACAM) is an independent, national organization of over 75 experienced masters who serve in both federal and state courts. ACAM's mission is to provide judges, lawyers, parties, and other masters with helpful information regarding the use of masters. ACAM membership is open to any master, including non-lawyers, who has been appointed by a federal or state court judge. Additional information, and the ACAM Bench Book, is available at the Academy of Court-Appointed Masters website at www.courtappointedmasters.org.

###

If you would like more information please contact Michele Apostolos, Director of Brand Marketing and Communications, JAMS at (213) 253-9754 or mapostolos@jamsadr.com or Christina Doucet at 952-516-6486 or media@adrforum.com.