

DAVID WARNER HAGEN

Born: Camden, Arkansas.

Admitted to bar: California (1960), Nevada (1963).

Education: University of Wisconsin (B.B.A. (Finance), 1956); University of San Francisco (LL.B. 1959).

United States District Judge (Ret. March 31, 2005), District of Nevada. Nominated for appointment by the President, October 7, 1993. Confirmed by the Senate, November 20, 1993. Evaluated as well qualified by the American Bar Association Standing Committee of the Federal Judiciary. Retired, March 31, 2005.

Arbitrator and mediator, JAMS, April 1, 2005 - .

Emeritus Master, Thompson's Inn, American Inns of Court.

Law Lecturer, University of Nevada, 1968-1971.

Acting Dean: 1981-1983 and Adjunct Professor 1981-1988, Nevada School of Law, formerly Old College Law School.

Member, Nevada Board of Bar Examiners, 1972-1991; Chair, 1989-1991.

Member, Board of Counselors, University of San Francisco Law School, 1978-1989.

Member, State Bar of Nevada (Chair, Continuing Education Committee, 1967-1971), (Chair, Uniform Commercial Code Committee, 1965-1971), Nevada Barristers Club (President, 1968-1970).

Member, Ninth Circuit Article III Judges Education Committee, 1995-2000, Chair 1998-2000.

Member, Federal Circuit Bar Association; Judges' Committee, 2000-2005.

Chair, Nevada Bar Exam Study Committee, 2005 - .

Member, Academy of Court Appointed Masters, 2006 - .

Fellow, American College of Trial Lawyers.

Advocate, American Board of Trial Advocates.

