

RESUMÉ

VICTORIA E. BRIEANT

BUSINESS AFFILIATION: Stroock & Stroock & Lavan LLP
Of Counsel (2003 to Date)

Victoria Brieant has 24 years of experience in litigation, with a broad range of complex commercial litigation, arbitration and alternative dispute resolution, involving the financial services industry, hospitality industry, healthcare industry and computer service industry. Ms. Brieant has litigated claims of fraud, breach of contract and fiduciary duties, antitrust, copyright, trademark, trade dress, patent infringement (offensive and defensive cases in the nutritional supplement and ink jet printer cartridge markets, and other mechanical patents), Lanham Act and various State law unfair competition, trade secret and employment claims. She also has extensive experience with foreign discovery, including Europe and Japan, and e-discovery.

EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND: State University Of New York at Buffalo Law School (J.D. 1983)
St. Lawrence University (B.A. 1980)

EDUCATIONAL HONORS: Distinguished Achievement Award, Constitutional Law
Buffalo Law Review, Associate Member
Magna Cum Laude (College)
Phi Beta Kappa
Faculty Scholar
Dean's List
Phi Beta Theta, National Honor Society, History

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND: Honorable Frederick B. Lacey, U.S.D.J. (Retired)
United States District Court for the District of New Jersey
(Law Clerk 1983 To 1984)

LeBoeuf, Lamb, Leiby & MacRae
(Associate 1984 To 1989)

Wilson, Sonsini, Goodrich & Rosati
(Associate 1989 To 1990)

Coudert Brothers LLP
(Partner 1995 To 2002; Associate 1990 To 1994)

Akira Technologies, Inc.
(Part-time General Counsel June 2002 To March 2005)

A more comprehensive biography may be found at: www.stroock.com.

ADMISSIONS TO BAR: New York, California, Florida, U.S. Court Of Appeals, 6th, 9th, 11th and Federal Circuits, U.S. District Courts, Southern And Eastern Districts of New York, Northern, Central, Eastern Districts of California, and Southern And Middle Districts Of Florida, and the District Of Columbia

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS:

Member, American Bar Association
Member, Academy of Court Appointed Masters
Member, Editorial Board, The Practical Litigator
Martindale-Hubbell AV Peer Review Rated

OTHER ACTIVITIES: Supreme Court of Florida Certified Circuit Civil Mediator training program, sponsored by the Mediation Training Center, Inc. (completed 2008)(certification pending);

Faculty member since August 1991 to the present for ALI ABA seminars, including Trial Evidence/Civil Practice (1991, 1996, 1999, 2001, 2002, 2005, 2006 AND 2007); The Art and Science of Serving as a Special Master in Federal and State Courts (November 2006 and 2007); Antitrust & High Technology Markets (annual programs 1991-1999) Panelist for Health Tech 2000 Program in Dallas, on antitrust issues, Co-Chair and Speaker for Annual ALI-ABA conference on Antitrust and Intellectual Property Legal Developments (1991-1999); and December 1992 Software Support Conference; and for American Conference Institute Programs (ACI) on Internet Law and Intellectual Property Licensing Issues.

Author/Lecturer: Techniques and Potential Problems in the Conduct of Deposition (ALI ABA Programs 1996 through 2007); Lecturer: The Role of the Special Master in Discovery Practice (ALI ABA Program November 2006 A AND 2007); Deposition Techniques; Sanctions (ALI ABA Program January 2005); "Antitrust Injury: A Plaintiff's Perspective," for the April 2002 ABA Antitrust Conference; "Deposition Techniques and Problem Areas," (ALI ABA Program February 2002 and August 2002); Soft Science and the Courts After Daubert: Non-Scientific Expert Testimony," (ALI ABA Program April 2001); Antitrust and Regulatory Issues in the Communications Marketplace, ALI ABA Program October 2000 (co-chair and speaker); "Structuring International Licensing Agreements and Technology Transfers," (ACI Conferences in 2/2000 and 9/2000); "Exposing Yourself on the Worldwide Web: The Legal Implications of Internet Advertising," co-authored with Jeffrey G. Benz (ACI Internet Conference, 2/99); "Developing Legal Issues and Effective Practice Techniques in Mediation and Arbitration," co-authored with William N. Hebert (ALI ABA 8/99); "Recent Developments In Submarket Definition: Brown Shoe Is Still Good Law?," co-authored with Paul S. Schmidtberger (ALI ABA 1996-98); "Information Costs, Lifecycle Costs, Switching Costs, and Lock-In" (ALI ABA 1996-98); "Expert Testimony and Facts," lecturer at January 1996 ALI-ABA Conference; co-author with Malcolm A. Misuraca, Esq.: "Insurance Defense in Intellectual Property/Antitrust Cases," ABA Intellectual Property Newsletter, Spring 1995 and Summer 1995 issues (two-part article); "The Microsoft Consent Decree: A Case Study," ALI-ABA Course Materials, Vol. C137, January 1995, at 55-60; co-author with Malcolm A. Misuraca of "Insurance Defense in Intellectual Property Antitrust Cases," ABA Section of Antitrust Law Computer Industry Newsletter; "Is Brown Shoe Still Good Law?," ALI-ABA Course Materials, Vol. C847, January 1993, at 109; "Information Costs, Lifecycle Costs, Switching Costs, and Lock-in," ALI-ABA Course Materials, Vol. C847, January 1993, at 97; co-author with Malcolm A. Misuraca of "Civil Justice Reform," The Court Management & Administration Report, Volume 3, No. 6, June 1992, at 1-15; "Analysis of the August, 1991 Proposed Amendments to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure," Resource Materials for Civil Practice and Litigation in Federal and State Courts, Volume 1, Section I-A, published 2/92; "Vertical Integration or Tying? How to Avoid Antitrust Liability," ALI-ABA Course Materials published 12/91 (Vol. C695), at 305-325; "What is The Meaning of a Per Se Violation Today? Will It Survive 1991?" Monopolization and Tying Cases in the '90's, ALI-ABA Course Materials published 12/91 (Vol. C695), at 275-292; "The August 1991 Proposed Amendments to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure: How are these Sweeping Proposals Likely to Affect Antitrust Litigation in the 1990's?", ALI-ABA Course Materials published 12/91 (Vol. C695), at 459-552.